BARBARA HANNAH'S SEARCH FOR WHOLENESS

Emmanuel Kennedy-Xypolitas

Barbara Hannah said once: "Both Jung and I minded most of all about wholeness, about becoming whole...finding the opposite to the thing that is destroying one ... of course I went through a tremendous encounter with the unconscious." (Film: A Matter of Heart). And C G Jung wrote: "Human wholeness is the goal to which the psychotherapeutic process ultimately leads... without the experience of the opposites there is no experience of wholeness and hence no inner approach to the sacred figures." (Introduction to Psychology and Alchemy)

Emmanuel Kennedy-Xypolitas, DPhil is an academic psychologist, psychotherapist and Jungian analyst. Born in Greece in 1952, he was adopted by William H Kennedy, who knew and worked with C G Jung, Esther Harding and Marie-Louise von Franz and was Co-founder and President of the C G Jung Foundation in New York. Emmanuel Kennedy is Executor of the Estate of M-L von Franz, Barbara Hannah and Anne Maguire. He is a past member of the Executive Committee of the Foundation for Jungian Psychology and of the Psychological Club Zürich. He is Founder of the "Anima Mundi Bookstore and Gallery for the furthering of the psychology of C G Jung and of the work of Marie-Louise von Franz", as well as Co-Founder and Manager of the Swiss Foundation Museum for Analytical Psychology.
